Our January program Reins of H.O.P.E. was quite well received. The equine therapy program created interest in having members tour. Let me know if you are interested so plans can be made Spring will be good time for a tour, yes?.

Recently I delivered 3 full bags of non-perishable foods to the Ventura College Basic Needs Pantry. They appreciate our ongoing donations a lot.

The annual youth music competition held by CFWC is now accepting applications. Piano, other instruments, and vocal categories are available for kids in grades 5 through 12 as well as young adults.

Full information available on the cfwc.org website or ask me – I can share paperwork. Perfect for a talented child or grandchild to be sponsored by a club and member. Deadline is April 1.

Did you know? The club pays for the number of lunches guaranteed. Pavilion and Caterer Policy is that food cannot be boxed up to take home, even though the guarantee number has not been met.

January Program REINS of H.O.P.E.

Sam Balcezak, Interim Executive Director was a dynamic speaker. REINS if hope serves individuals or groups of individuals who pursue the services for Equine Assisted Psychotherapy may have a variety of challenges These individuals will have the support of our expert mental health professionals. Due to the recent floods, they need to relocate their programs. This was an energetic, exciting presentation. The audience enjoyed it greatly
